LOT LINE ADJUSTMENT: The reconfiguration of the boundary between two abutting lots, provided: 1) that the boundary line being reconfigured has not changed since the original date of adoption of these Bylaws; 2) the adjustment does not create additional lots; and, 3) that the adjustment does not change the size of either lot by more than 10% in any dimension.

- b) Where the land has been divided into lots by a local or state subdivision permit or approval; or,
- c) Any land acquired by separate deed or other instrument, provided that it has an area of at least one acre, or, if smaller than one acre and developed, has a functioning water supply and wastewater system.

4.1.6. Drainage and Erosion Control

Design and construction of the subdivision shall minimize soil erosion or reduction in the capacity of the land to hold water does not result. Thereafter, an Amended Application seeking permits to develop the lots must be filed and granted before any development can take place.
