

Corinth Conservation Commission
Minutes: November 2, 2015 (unapproved)

Present: Glynn Pellagrino (chair), Linda Tobin, Frank Roderick, Brad Wheeler, Kevin Buchanan (awaiting appointment), Alexis Gatz ( member of public)

Meeting called to order by chair at 7:08 p.m.

Minutes: Review of October minutes, unanimously approved. (Glynn moved, Frank seconded)

Public comment: Alexis Gatz came to observe the meeting, out of personal interest.

Ted Levin talk on Timber Rattlesnakes follow up. Attendance at talk was about 20 people. Linda submitted an invoice for payment to the town and will send a thank you card to Ted. Everyone agreed the talk was very good. Thanks to Bill Tobin for putting together the great slides.

Bottles: There was some confusion about the bottle pick up schedule for the last two weeks in October; however, it worked out fine.

Bottle duty: Frank 11/7: Glynn 11/14: Marian 11/21: Brad 11/28: Kevin 12/5.

Winter Activities:

Brad proposed hosting a square dance as a fundraiser. Linda attends a dance locally and would inquire about a caller. The Waits River Valley School was proposed as a site to hold the dance because of the need for space to dance. Other activities included another full moon snowshoe and a tracking workshop, either with Alcott Smith or the folks from the Roots School. Also a program on composting and the new recycling law will be considered. No dates were set.

Other Business: Glynn submitted sixty-five dollars in cash from the Cookeville Mall donation bottle to Linda. The mall continues to be staffed by volunteers. The winter hours begin in November. Winter hours are 10:00 a.m. To 11:00a.m. Saturdays.

Frank mentioned the budget meetings for the town are coming up this month and would attend and submit a request for this year of $250.00 dollars to the committee for the Conservation Committee.

Ginny Barlow sent an email with a list of the types of trees planted in the apple orchard behind the town hall.

Next meeting is December 7, 2015 7:00 p.m.

Meeting adjourned at 8:05 p.m. (Glynn moved, Frank seconded)

Respectfully submitted,
Glynn Pellagrino
