Meeting Minutes
January 17, 2023
5PM

Attending: Carole Freeman, Dean Packard, KellyAnn Donahue, Sandy Spiegel, Anne McKinsey, Jeff Spiegel

Absent: Catherine Haley, Alice Mower, Christine Packard

1. Quorum was established.
2. Dean Packard was introduced as our new board member.
3. Minutes for December 2022 were approved.
4. Treasurer's report showed a balance of $1,183.12. Approval of the report was postponed to insure the balance was correct and will be presented at the February meeting.
5. The dilapidated building in E. Corinth Village was discussed. Katharine Lea, the Town Safety Officer, was not in attendance but after the meeting she notified Jeff Spiegel she would attend our February meeting and discuss the investigation she conducted on the village building and the report she sent to the the owner and to the select board.
6. A concern was discussed about the woman staying at the dilapidated building. She has been sleeping in her truck at night to stay warm. Carole Freeman will contact Catherine Haley, the Town Service Officer, to investigate.
7. Jeff reported on 2 grants he submitted to the Vermont Humanities Counsel and the Vermont Community Foundation for the mural project at the town transfer station. He is now awaiting their decision.
8. A motion was approved to pay the E. Corinth Congregational church $60 for their zoom service for our meetings.
9. A motion was approved for $30 to the Pay It Forward program at the E. Corinth General store.
10. Meeting adjourned at 5:40 PM
