Corinth Conservation Commission
February 3, 2025 meeting APPROVED minutes

Present: Glynn Pelagrino, Lindle Lawton-Sutton, Mary Kent, Luise Graff,
On Zoom : Ken Arkind.
Absent: Luke Campbell, Katharine Lea.
Public : On Zoom, Donna Foster VLT

Call to Order and Land Acknowledgement 7:03 PM

Approval of January minutes. Unanimous.

Discussion via Zoom with Donna Foster from the Vermont Land Trust.
Topics covered: Obstacles to conserving land, cost, size of parcel, engaging land owners. There are many organizations that protect different types of land, agricultural, forests. VLT has bulletins and other material that we can distribute to interested people. We'll have some available for the Forest Block talk.

Forest Block program: Ryan Rebozo with the VT Center for Ecostudies is set to speak on Sunday February 23 at 4:00. The town hall is reserved. Lindle will get some refreshments. Glynn made a motion for the CCC to cover expenses for refreshment, Mary seconded, all in favor. Ken will continue to post announcements on the LRN and Front Porch Forum. Glynn will check with Luke about making a flyer. We will reach out to other CC's in our area. Glynn will check with VTECS about streaming the talk. Glynn will get the maps from the library to display. We discussed doing a land use fair with various groups such as the land trusts and Coverts, VT Woodlands Association as a follow up.

Tracking walk: Sunday 2/9, Two sessions 10-12 and 1-3. at Roots School. Glynn made a motion to cover the $330.00 fee for the walk, Mary K, seconded. All in favor.

Full Moon Snowshoe: 2/12 Lindle got permission to hold the walk at Sweet Bear Farm. We'll meet at 7:00 at the sugarhouse. 10 people signed up so far.

Ken Arkind reminded us of the public meeting Thursday 2/6 on the proposed subdivision by-law changes. Ken suggested the CCC should have a position on the changes. Glynn made a motion after a discussion that the CCC support the proposed changes. Ken second, all in favor. Some of the CCC members will attend the meeting Thursday.

Bottles March: Luise G 3/3 we will point the rest at the next meeting.

Adjourned at 8:12