What happens next?

You can check the status of your voter registration 3 days after your Town Clerk receives your completed form.
Go to vote.vermont.gov.

If the Town Clerk or Board of Civil Authority finds that you are not eligible to vote, you will receive a notice that states why your application was rejected.

Are you eligible to register?

To be eligible to vote in Vermont, you must:

- Be a citizen of the United States
- Be a resident of Vermont in the town where your residential address is, or be a military or overseas voter whose last US residence was in Vermont
- Take, or have previously taken the Voter's Oath
- Be 18 or older on Election Day

Your identity

You must provide your date of birth and your place of birth. You must also provide 1 of the following:

- Your VT Driver's License or Personal I.D. (PID) number
  Or
- If you do not have a VT DL or PID #, provide the last 4 digits of your Social Security number

If you don't have a PID number or a Social Security number, please contact the State Elections Division at 802-828-2363.

Your addresses

You must register at your residential address. This is the address where you currently live.

If you receive mail at a different address from your residential address, provide a mailing address.

If you are already registered somewhere else, provide your previous registration address.

If you do not have a residential address, describe the physical location where you live in Section 4.

Your contact information

Your phone number and email address are confidential. We will only use them to contact you if we have a question about your voter registration information or your voted ballot.

Registering in Vermont for the 1st time?

If you are registering in Vermont for the 1st time, you must complete the Voter's Oath. If you do not take oaths, you may take it as an affirmation.

If you are a 1st time VT registrant and you are mailing this form to your town clerk, you must also submit a photocopy of an acceptable form of ID.

Acceptable forms of ID are 1 of the following:

- Valid state or federally issued photo ID
- US Passport/Passport card
- Current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document that shows your current name and address

In prison or convicted of a felony?

If you were convicted of a felony, you can register and vote in Vermont.

If you are currently in prison, you can register and vote in Vermont. In section 4, use the residential address of the last place you lived before you were incarcerated.

Your rights

If you were provided with this application form by a voter registration agency, you may decline to register. If you decline to register, your failure to register will remain confidential and will be used only for voter registration purposes.

If you are submitting this application through a voter registration agency, the office through which you submitted this application will remain confidential and will be used only for voter registration purposes.
