Special Town Meeting Warning

November 22, 2026 at 3pm

The legal voters of the Town of Corinth in the County of Orange are hereby notified and warned to meet at the Town Hall in Cookeville on Sunday, November 22, 2026 at 3:00 PM to act on the following:

Article 1. Will the voters agree to vote on requests for appropriations from third party organizations separately from the General Fund budget?

Article 2. Will the voters agree to publish in the town report beginning in 2027 the owner name, parcel street address, and delinquent property tax sum due with interest and penalties for parcels for which property taxes are delinquent for more than 12 months?

Article 3. Will the voters agree to increase the interest due on delinquent taxes to the current statutory maximum, with interest applied at each installment? At this time the current statutory maximum is simple interest of 1% interest per month for each of the first three months past the due date and 1.5% for every month thereafter.

Article 4. Will the voters approve closure of reserve funds in which work and expenditures are completed as of June 30, 2027, expressly including the Transfer Station (Fund 150), the History Books Fund (Fund 130), and the Special Projects Fund (Fund 115), and authorize any remaining debits or credits to be transferred to the General Fund?

Article 5. To transact any other business that may legally come before the meeting.

Dated at Corinth, Vermont this 15th day of October, 2026.
